In addition to the application form (printed and signed), always submit the original of a certified photocopy of the original certificates and the certified translation into German of your original certificates. We accept certified photocopies of your certified translations. Scanned copies or simple photocopies will not be accepted:

If the original certificates are in German or English, you do not have to send a translation. Please follow the instructions for official accreditations and translations:
www.uni-leipzig.de/en/international/organisation -> Preparing.

Where do I hand in my application?

Your application will be processed by uni-assist e.V. (Application Services for International Students). Uni-assist checks whether your application comprises all necessary documents in the required form. In addition, they determine whether you meet the admission requirements. The Universität Leipzig decides if you receive an admission to study there.

Please find out about the application procedure via uni-assist at: www.uni-assist.de

You need to send your full application to the following postal address:

Universität Leipzig
