What is my UniCard?
The UniCard is your student ID card here at Leipzig University.

Your UniCard is only valid with a current semester imprint.

You must get the imprint from a validation station each semester after your re-registration.

Your UniCard combines several functions:
- Mensa and Cafeteria card
- photocopy card
- loading up your printing account
- travel ticket for public transport
- library card

Paying in the Mensa
You can pay your meals and beverages in the Mensa and Cafeteria of the Studentenwerk Leipzig without using cash. Just top up the Mensa account of your card at one of the designated machines located in the entrance area of the Mensa/Cafeteria.

Photocopy Card
You can use your UniCard as photocopy card in the University library and faculties. The copy account can be topped up at the card loading stations situated in the library. A list of locations can be found on www.uni-leipzig.de/unicard.

Please bear in mind: In case of loss or damage of your UniCard the copy money cannot be refunded.

Printing
By transfer of money from your Mensa account at one of the transfer stations you are able to make printouts at the University Computer Centre. You find relevant information on www.uni-leipzig.de/unicard.

Travelling by public transport
Your UniCard allows you to use public transport within the MDV travel zone all day. You can travel by tram, bus, S-Bahn and train when the imprint “MDV” shows up on your card. You find more information on: www.studentenwerk-leipzig.de/service/mobil-leipzig.

Library card
You can check out books in the various libraries of Leipzig University with your UniCard. Your library number is indicated on the backside of your card (“Bibl.-Nr.”).

Your card got lost or is faulty?
Please contact the Servicepoint UniCard during office hours and bring your enrolment number. There you receive a new UniCard and more information concerning the refundment of Mensa and copy money.
