Call for applications from the German Academic Exchange Service STIBET 2020 scholarship and support programme for foreign students

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

In cooperation with the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the International Centre at Leipzig University invites applications for

STIBET graduation grants for international students and international graduates. The scholarships are limited to the period from 1 September 2020 until 31 December 2020. The minimum scholarship amount is €250 per month.

Applications are open to international students and graduates who, through no fault of their own, have fallen on hard times but who are likely to complete their studies in the near future. Students who already receive support through a scholarship are not eligible.

Applications must include:

- ▲ Completed application form
- ▲ Justification / letter of motivation
- ▲ CV in tabular form
- ▲ Proof of completed modules (overview of grades)
- ▲ Two letters of recommendation from lecturers at Leipzig University.

The deadline for applications is 15 August 2020.

The International Centre must have received all documents by this date. The application form and a letter of recommendation template are available on the website.

Scholarship recipients will be nominated by a selection committee.
