At the Faculty of Mathematics and Informatics the following professorship has to be filled as soon as possible:

W2-Professorship Calculus of Variations

The applicant should have an outstanding track record in a current field of analysis, in particular calculus of variations or nonlinear partial differential equations. Active collaboration with existing research groups at the Institute of Mathematics and the Max-Planck-Institute for Mathematics in the Sciences is expected. Experience in the acquisition of third-party funding is desirable. The successful applicant will be involved in teaching analysis at all levels.

Rights and obligations of the jobholder are within the Saxonian university law (Sächsisches Hochschulfreiheitsgesetz, SächsHSFG) and the Saxonian public service task regulation (Sächsische Dienstaufgabenverordnung, DAVOHS). Applicants must meet the requirements of §58 SächsHSFG.

The University of Leipzig emphasizes the equality of women and men. Handicapped applicants are encouraged to apply and given preference if equally qualified.

Applications with the usual documents, enclosing a detailed CV, a list of the scientific work and academic teaching including available records of teaching evaluations, and a certified copy of the certificate of the highest acquired academic degree, should be sent, preferably also in digital format as one PDF-document, by no later than 24th June 2019 to:
