The Institute of Egyptology and the Georg Steindorff Egyptian Museum at the Faculty of History, Arts and Oriental Studies seek to fill the following professorship from 1 October 2020.

W3 Professorship in Egyptology

Applicants are expected to have a chronological focus on the 3rd–1st millennium BC in the area of the Old, Middle and Late Egyptian language levels, including hieratic scripts, with expertise on the cultural and intellectual history of the period in question. Applicants must demonstrate their ability to dovetail their work with Leipzig University’s interpretation of digital humanities or other interdisciplinary initiatives. Cooperation with the interacademic project “Strukturen und Transformationen des Wortschatzes der ägyptischen Sprache: Text- und Wissenskultur im Alten Ägypten” (BBAW + SAW) is expected.

The job holder’s rights and obligations are regulated by the Saxon Freedom of Higher Education Act (SächsHSFG) and the Saxon Service Regulations for Higher Education Institutions (DAVOHS). Applicants must meet the requirements of Section 58 SächsHSFG.

Leipzig University is committed to the equality of women and men. Severely disabled persons are encouraged to apply and will be given preference in the case of equal suitability.

Please send your application with the usual documents (including a detailed CV, a list of scientific work and academic teaching including any records of teaching evaluations, and a certified copy of the certificate of the highest academic degree acquired to date), preferably also in digital format as a single PDF document, to:
