The Faculty of Economics and Management Science seeks to fill the following professorship from 1 April 2021:

W2 Professorship in Sustainable Real Estate and Urban Development

The professorship is embedded in the existing focal points of the Faculty of Economics and Management Science in the field of sustainability management as well as in the internationally oriented Joint International Master in Sustainable Development. It will represent the field of real estate and urban development in the context of sustainability and adaptation to climate change in research and teaching.

In research and teaching, the successful candidate should cover the interdisciplinary aspects of the field of appointment as well as different scale levels between object and planning processes. Competencies are expected in innovative quantitative, data and model-based research methods as well as in selected disciplinary research areas: demand-oriented provision of residential and commercial space, analysis of sustainable financing and investment products in an international context, support of digitization processes (Smart Cities, BIM or Building Intelligent Modeling, CREM or Corporate Real Estate Management, etc.).

The prerequisites for employment are pedagogical-didactic skills, and a willingness to take up and successfully continue inter- and transdisciplinary teaching and research approaches and to apply and develop new teaching and learning concepts. E-learning skills and a natural handling of learning platforms are also required.

Activities include offering basic lectures in the field of sustainability management and the design and development of the advertised focal points in teaching and research.

We are looking for a qualified individual who has an outstanding academic record, demonstrated by national and international publications, ideally with peer review, as well as lecturing activities. The successful acquisition of third-party funds in connection with research collaborations is expected. Experience in academic self-administration is desired.

The job holder’s rights and obligations are regulated by the Saxon Freedom of Higher Education Act (SächsHSFG) and the Saxon Service Regulations for Higher Education Institutions (DAVOHS). Applicants must meet the requirements of Section 58 SächsHSFG.

Leipzig University is committed to gender equality.

Severely disabled persons are encouraged to apply and will be given preference in the case of equal suitability.

Applications with the usual documents, including a research concept, a detailed CV, a list of scientific work and academic teaching to date, including available records of teaching evaluations, as well as a certified copy of the highest academic degree acquired should be sent, either by post or electronically as a single PDF document to:

Leipzig University
Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Management Science
Professor Johannes Ringel
IPF 170001, 04081 Leipzig dekanat@wifa.uni-leipzig.de

by no later than 13 March 2020.
Please note that it is not possible to guarantee confidentiality and rule out unauthorised access by third parties when communicating via unencrypted email.

Information about data protection in connection with the processing of personal data as required under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Applicants are hereby informed about the processing of their personal data.

Controller:
The controller responsible for data protection within the meaning of the GDPR is
Leipzig University
Faculty of Economics and Management Science
Grimmaische Straße 12
04109 Leipzig
Phone: +49 341 97-33500
Email: dekanat@wifa.uni-leipzig.de
Website: www.uni-leipzig.de

Contact details of the data protection officer:
Data protection officer
Augustusplatz 10
04109 Leipzig
Phone: +49 341 97-30081
Email: dsb@uni-leipzig.de

Purpose and legal basis of the processing of personal data:
Any data you provide us with in connection with your application will be processed only for the purposes of this selection process and, where appropriate, in preparation for your employment. The legal basis of the processing of your personal data for appointing civil servants/for employment-related purposes is Art. 6(1) Sentence 1(e) in conjunction with (3), Art. 88 GDPR in conjunction with Sect. 111(6) of the Saxon Civil Servants Act (SächsBG) in conjunction with Sect. 4(1) Sentence 1 of the Saxon Data Protection Act (SächsDSG), and Sect. 26 of the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). Insofar as you provide special categories of personal data during the application procedure within the meaning of Art. 9(1) GDPR (e.g. data concerning health, such as severely disabled status), that data will be processed so that you can exercise your rights in the field of employment and social security and social protection law and so that the controller can carry out its obligations in this regard under employment and social welfare law (Art. 9(2)(b) GDPR).

Disclosure to third parties:
Your application documents will be made available to the members of the appointment committee, which is composed of representatives of Leipzig University, the participating Equal Opportunity Commissioner, the Disability Officer if involved, the appointment officer, external assessors, the Rectorate, the Faculty Council, the Faculty and University administration and the Saxon State Ministry of Science and the Arts (SMWK).

Personal data storage period:
The duration of the storage of personal data is governed by Sect. 11(4) of the Saxon Data Protection Implementation Act (SächsDSDDG). This stipulates that data collected prior to the commencement of a service or employment relationship must be erased without undue delay as soon as it is established that a service or employment relationship will not be established. This does not apply if there is reason to believe that the erasure would harm the legitimate interests of the data subject.
If your application is successful, your documents will be added to your personnel file.
Your rights:
You have the following rights vis-à-vis the controller with regard to your personal data:
- Right of access (Art. 15 GDPR)
- Right to rectification (Art. 16 GDPR)
- Right to erasure (Art. 17 GDPR)
- Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 GDPR)
- Right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR)
- Right to object to data processing, where the data is collected based on Article 6(1) Sentence 1(e) or (f) (Art. 21 GDPR)
- Right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority (Saxon Commissioner for Data Protection, Bernhard-von-Lindenauplatz 5, 01067 Dresden) (Art. 77 GDPR).

Obligation to provide data:
The provision of personal data is necessary to ensure the legality of the planned selection process. Failure to include relevant personal data in the application documents may result in your application not being considered for the post. Leipzig University's legal requirements during the selection process result in particular from Art. 33(2) of the Basic Law (GG), the Constitution of the Free State of Saxony (SächsVerf), the General Act on Equal Treatment (AGG), the Saxon Freedom of Higher Education Act (SächsHSFG), and budgetary law.